The BREAK (Building Respite Evidence and Knowledge) Exchange is an international group of researchers, respite providers, agencies, and individuals who are committed to building a culture of evidence-based respite care. Benefits of joining the BREAK Exchange include:

CONNECT with a global network of researchers, respite providers, agencies, and individuals. Currently, there are more than 100 members from more than 10 countries in the Exchange!

LEARN about evidence-based respite care practices and research happening around the world.

SHARE your evidence-based practices or research with international partners. Feature your work in the monthly e-newsletter, on the BREAK Exchange website, or present a quarterly webinar.

COLLABORATE on an evaluation or research project. Leverage the Exchange to identify a potential partner for your next project!

Learn more about the BREAK Exchange online at breakexchange.wisc.edu, join the BREAK Exchange Group on Facebook at facebook.com/groups/breakexchange, and follow us on Twitter @exchange_break.

If you have any events or news that you would like to share on the Exchange website or in the newsletter, or if you would like to present your work during one of our quarterly webinars, please email break.exchange@son.wisc.edu.
